WORKSHEET: WEBSITE CONTENT STORYBOARD

1. What is your topic? _____

_____

2. What is your thesis? What is your angle or argument? _____

_____

3. List the points you want to display on the different pages of your website. How does each page provide important analysis for your topic?

_____

a. How will you divide your information into web pages? _____

_____

b. How will you organize these pages within your website? _____

_____

c. Provide the following information for each page:

– Descriptive title_____

_____

– Main heading_____

_____

– Subheadings_____

_____

– Purpose of the page_____

_____

– Description of content _____

_____

– Types of images and multimedia _____

_____

– Links to other pages _____

_____

d. What text—your own historical analysis—will be included on each page? Type out your text.

_____

_____

4. List all primary sources, such as images, documents, maps, and newspapers that you will include on each page.

_____

_____

5. What secondary sources will you include on each page? This may include maps, charts, quotes from historians, or timelines that you create.

_____

_____

6. Create a website storyboard. Sketch (either on paper or electronically) what you want to put on each page and how the pages will be linked.

_____

_____